JUSTIFICATION FOR [REDACTED]
TRAINING AT KINGS POINT SEMINAR

STATINTL

This course is required to update and expand [REDACTED] knowledge of the process of technological change which directly effects his duties as Executive Officer involved in imagery exploitation R&D. As an administrator and supervisor in R&D activities, [REDACTED] will acquire an increased understanding of meaningful approaches to research and development policies and their administration. The speakers at the course are nationally known individuals, well-established in their fields, and their discussions are calculated to force the listener to re-examine his own values and beliefs and to re-orient them in the light of larger, more important national goals and objectives.
